

please keep the ownership rules as they are. the proposed changes will allow large media corporations to reduce the quality and range of content. the public will not benefit from these changes.